

Privacy Policy for Symphony Group Affiliated Company Websites

This Policy applies for information gathering practices at this and all Symphony Group affiliated company websites.

The information we collect is used to improve the content of our website; for tracking the results of marketing campaigns; and to provide requested information to our visitors.

Information Submitted on Online Forms

Symphony Group companies will not use your contact or other information for any purpose other than corresponding with you regarding the Symphony Group products and/or services that you have expressed an interest in. Symphony Group companies do not sell, rent or lease our prospect or customer lists, or any information you provide us, to third parties of any type.

If, at any time, you no longer wish to receive correspondence from us such as e-mails, you may request to be removed from our prospect list by sending an e-mail to sales@symphonymail.com with the words "Remove from Prospect List" in the subject line along with your full name.

Site Visit Information

Symphony Group company websites may use cookies and/or other technologies to collect basic non-identifying information when you visit our websites. This includes information such as an IP address, when you visited, the referring website, the pages you visit on our website, your computer's operating system, and the type of web browser that you are using. We only use this non-identifying information for analytical purposes or to calculate aggregate demographics. We do not collect any personally identifying information using such technologies.

Security of Information

Symphony Group companies have appropriate security measures in place to protect against the loss or misuse of information that we have collected through our websites.

For any information we retain, we will only disclose such information when required to do so at the request of governmental authorities conducting an investigation, by court order, in compliance with any laws, or to protect against misuse or unauthorized use of our websites or the information contained therein.
